After losing both of her parents in a car accident, Shinonome Rei discovers that she is the heiress to the Hongou family's multi-million dollar fortune, making her a young lady of riches, an 'Ikebana', overnight. Rei loves Rihito, a Butler who serves the Hongou family, so she enrolls in St. Louis Academy for Young Women in order to become his ideal lady. Four years later, when Rei enters her senior year, the male foreign-exchange students arrive at her school, and it is revealed that they are candidates to become her fiancés, each hand-selected by Rei's grandfather. Upon discovering that Prince Claus of Bernstein is in fact Princess Clarice, Rei decides to help her and accompanies her back to Bernstein. Meanwhile, the country is in danger of being seized by Gracis after Clarice's uncle betrays the royal family. When Clarice tries to run for the border, her uncle takes his authority over the army to stop her. Then and there, Rei appears, declaring that she just bought the country!
